

I am opposed to any modification and/or weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy law. In my opinion, an exemption base on the Federal Communications Commission "established business relationship" should not apply and/or give any business an expressed right to impose unwanted and bothersome phone calls to Indiana consumers.